FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 2, 2020

Last day to register to vote Monday, Oct. 5, for Nov. 3 election

AUSTIN – The voter registration deadline for the Nov. 3 Presidential Election is three days away and Travis County’s voter registrar is urging residents to no longer mail in their applications. Instead, he says, drop off your application at any voter registration site.

“Voter registration applications must be in our office by no later than the deadline day of Monday, Oct. 5, and we are too close to the deadline for you to count on the postal service to postmark your application in time,” said Bruce Elfant, the county voter registrar and tax assessor-collector. “If you have a voter application or if you need to still register to vote, there are several locations you can drop off that application or register to vote, including our main office at 5501 Airport Blvd.”

Anyone whose application is postmarked past the deadline will be registered to vote but ineligible to cast a ballot on Nov. 3.

Here are the locations where you can register to vote or drop off a voter application:

- 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday-Friday; 4 p.m. to midnight, Monday, Oct. 5, Travis County Tax Office, 5501 Airport Blvd.
